ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We are indebted to all the contributors for giving so freely of their time and expertise, both at the Conference at Bonar Bridge in 1983 and to the present volume.

The Scottish Society for Northern Studies is also particularly grateful for photographs, plans and other illustrations to the Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Scotland, the Royal Museum of Scotland, the Historic Buildings and Monuments Directorate of the Scottish Development Department, the National Galleries of Scotland, the National Library of Scotland, the Scottish Record Office, the Scottish Tourist Board, the Earl of Cromartie, Mr B. Urquhart of Craigston, Mrs H. Ross of Lochslin, Dr J. C. Close-Brookes, Mr J. Forsyth and Miss H. Hoare. Jane Davidson, formerly of the School of Scottish Studies, University of Edinburgh, very kindly re-typed several sections of the manuscript, and a number of illustrations were skilfully drawn or re-drawn by Douglas Lawson temporarily with the Scottish Wildlife Trust.

The Society is delighted to record financial assistance towards publication from Britoil plc, Highland Regional Council, Caledonian Towing and Marine Services Ltd (J. P. Knight Ltd), T. D. Hunter Ltd (Sutherland Wool Mills), Sutherland District Council, Highlands Fabricators Ltd. In addition, the Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Scotland has most generously grant-aided the chapter by Mr G. Stell. To the Commission also, therefore, our most sincere thanks.
